INTRODUCTION

SECOND EDITION SEASONS 1960/61 to 2021/22

This is edition 2, the first edition of 291 pages covered up to and including season 2012/13.

This edition contains a full record of all the football matches attended by me, Roger Clunn, my Brother David, my two Sons Benjamin and Thomas and my two Granddaughters Maddison and now Sophie, who went to her first game in August 2019. This edition covers Seasons 1960/61 to 2021/22.

Updated statistics, corrected errors from the previous edition, revised information and updated totals are included in this edition.

The latter half of Season 2019/20 and season 2020/21 were severely disrupted by the Corona Virus, resulting in some league competitions being cancelled, games played behind closed doors and the Euro 2020 Championship being played in 2021.

This edition covers the individual seasons as follows:

Roger	1960/1	-	2021/22
David	1963/4	-	2021/22
Benjamin	1980/1	-	2021/22
Thomas	1982/3	-	2021/22
Maddison	2007/8	-	2021/22
Sophie.	2019/20	-	2021/22

My Mum loved football and followed it closely, right up to her passing away at age 88, in particular Arsenal and Millwall. She regularly attended games in her formative years, with her two Brothers Albert and Fred ‘Ginger’ Murray.

My Brother David followed in her footsteps supporting Arsenal and to a lesser extent Millwall. My Dad didn’t like football, although in the 1960’s and 1970’s he managed to get tickets for most of the big games at Wembley Stadium for David and I, including domestic and European Cup Finals, Internationals and all the 1966 World Cup games played in London.

Ben, Maddison & Sophie, like me, are Millwall, my other Son, Tom, does not really have a team and over the years has attended games more or less in sufferance. David for many years has lived in Melbourne, Australia and like Tom doesn’t go on a regular basis now.

My eldest Granddaughter Maddison, started going to Millwall in September 2007, and been a Season Ticket holder since she was born. Hopefully she will love football and Millwall like her Dad Ben and I.

My youngest Granddaughter, Sophie, is also a Millwall season Ticket holder, from the day after she was born, in 2016.

My first game on the 17 December 1960 between Millwall and York City would be the real start of a lifetime of love for the game and the passion for attending games both near and far, in the UK and world wide.

That first game, at the Den, the wonderful old home ground of Millwall, which they sadly left in 1993, saw the home side come from two nil down to beat York City by three goals to two. Before that game I never imagined that Millwall Football Club would come to mean so much to me.

Travelling to the first game with my two uncles, my Mum, had arranged for her Brothers Albert and Ginger Murray, both lifelong Millwall supporters, to take me, I was both excited and a little apprehensive as there was rarely live football on the television other than the FA Cup Final in those days and I didn't know really what to expect. We sat in the main stand, in fact the only stand, front row, halfway between the centre line and the home end, which was called the Cold Blow Lane End or shortened to the CBL.

I was one of 6706 at Millwall that day and like many of those there didn't think much of their performance until the last fifteen minutes or so when the 'Lions' scored three times to turn what I thought was certain defeat into a glorious victory, I was hooked and have followed Millwall ever since.

Over three thousand, three hundred games later I love going to watch football as much now as I did all those years ago. Much credit must be attributed to a very understanding and long suffering wife, Denise, who has absolutely no interest in football other than claiming she supports West Ham United. Like she says "Roger goes to football, I go shopping". A partnership made in heaven in my opinion.

Thanks to my Dad, my Brother David and I were at Wembley when England lifted the Jules Rimet Trophy in 1966, a great and wonderful occasion. Never to be forgotten or perhaps repeated.

However, nothing compares with Millwall at Wembley in 1999 in the Auto Windscreen Trophy Final when 49,000 Millwall fans were in a crowd of over 58,000 against Wigan Athletic or the Cup Final at the Millennium Stadium, Cardiff, in 2004 with Sons Ben and Tom and my Uncle Albert's two children Kate and Tim. A life long dream fulfilled.

My only regret is that my late Uncles, Albert and Ginger were not there with us to share that fantastic day. They like the rest of us they would not have believed that little old Millwall would ever reach the Football Association Cup Final.

Over the years many of the games I have attended have been with Albert, Ginger, David, Ben, Tom, Kate, Tim and Maddison and now Sophie and last but not least my best mate, Graham Mills, who sadly passed away in 2020, a season ticket holder at his beloved Aston Villa, who with me has shared many great overseas football trips. To all I'm truly grateful for the good company and many happy days.

This book contains all games the six Clunn's have attended, with the full and half time score, and are set out under the person, per season and in the following order:-

Millwall Home Games
Other League Team Games
Wembley Games
UEFA & FIFA Tournaments
Other National Stadiums
Non League Games
Other British Games
Foreign Games

There is also a section for five a side football tournament games attended by my brother and I, these are not included in the matches attended totals.

Please note for clarification:-

- International games played at a club ground will be under the specific club where the game has been played, for example England playing at Anfield will come under Liverpool.
- In addition if a club is playing a 'home' game at an other clubs ground the game will be found at the club where the game has taken place, for example Wimbledon playing at home at Crystal Palace's Selhurst Park will come under Crystal Palace.
- F A Cup Semi Finals will be found under the club or ground they are played at, for example a game at Villa Park will be found under Aston Villa. If the game took place at Wembley Stadium that is where it can be found.
- If two teams play at a 'neutral' ground it will be found under the club where the game is played, for example Manchester City playing Norwich City at Stamford Bridge will be found under Chelsea.
- In addition there are other pieces of information and statistics such as extra time played with score at 90 minutes, aggregate scores, but only noted if second leg attended, abandoned games and the number of games attended per season.
- Also the average number of games per season attended.

- A section for grounds visited for a match is included and in addition shows grounds visited specifically with Millwall, except for David Clunn, which shows grounds visited with Arsenal.

I felt I needed to produce this book for both my family and as a comprehensive record of all the games we have all attended. It has taken me a fair amount of time to put together. I hope there are not too many errors and or omissions. If you come across any please keep it to yourself.
